DONNA TAYLOR, D.O.M.P

Donna has 32 years experience in the healing sciences. Her appreciation for both allopathic and holistic medicine eventually lead her from a career in immunology and medical research to the study of manual Osteopathy, a practice that perfectly marries the two. Donna Taylor, D.O.M.P., is a graduate of the Canadian College of Osteopathy, and a member of the Ontario Association of Osteopaths (OAO)

Extended Health Care (EHC) Insurance Policies often include the services provided by Osteopathic Manual Practitioners who are OAO Members.
